

CELEBRATE OLD SPANISH TRAIL DAYS

IN TECOPA, CA--OCTOBER 19, 20, 21

A Coloring Book for Young Ones—
Mules, Sheep, and Horses

Sponsored by the Old Spanish Trail Association

A boy sheep is called a Ram. Sheep are raised to give us meat and wool.

A girl sheep is called a Ewe. Sheep eat grass, weeds, and grain.

Baby sheep are called lambs.

Color the picture like a Ganado rug.

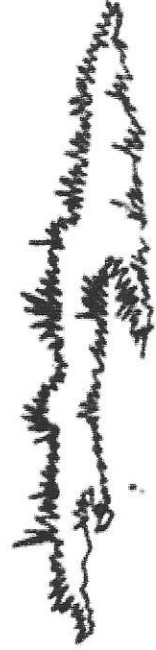

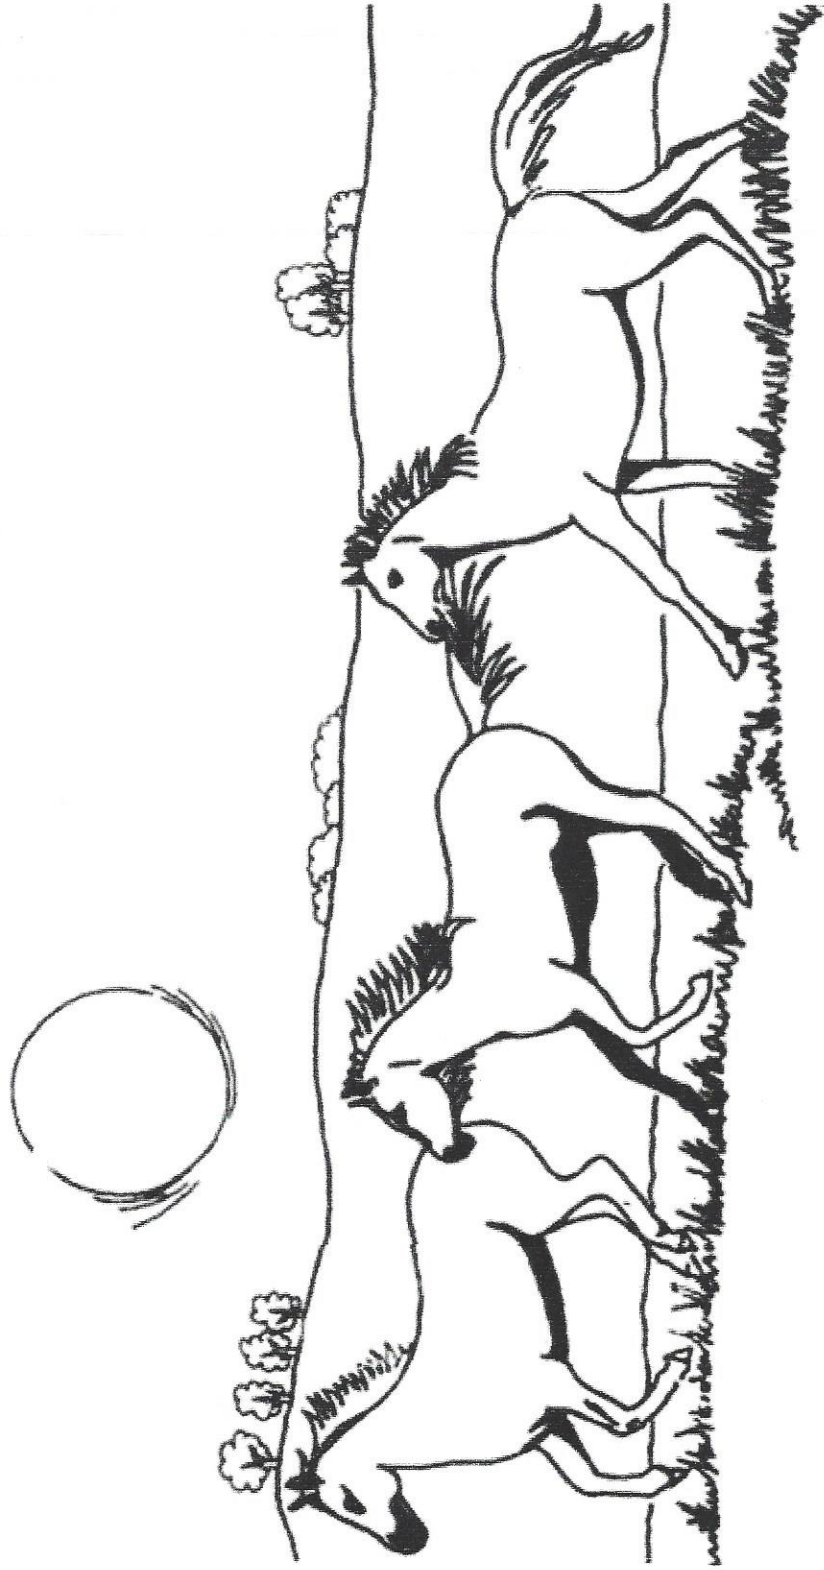

Ganado rugs were usually red, gray, black and white. Red was used the most in these rugs.

Sheep give us wool for blankets.

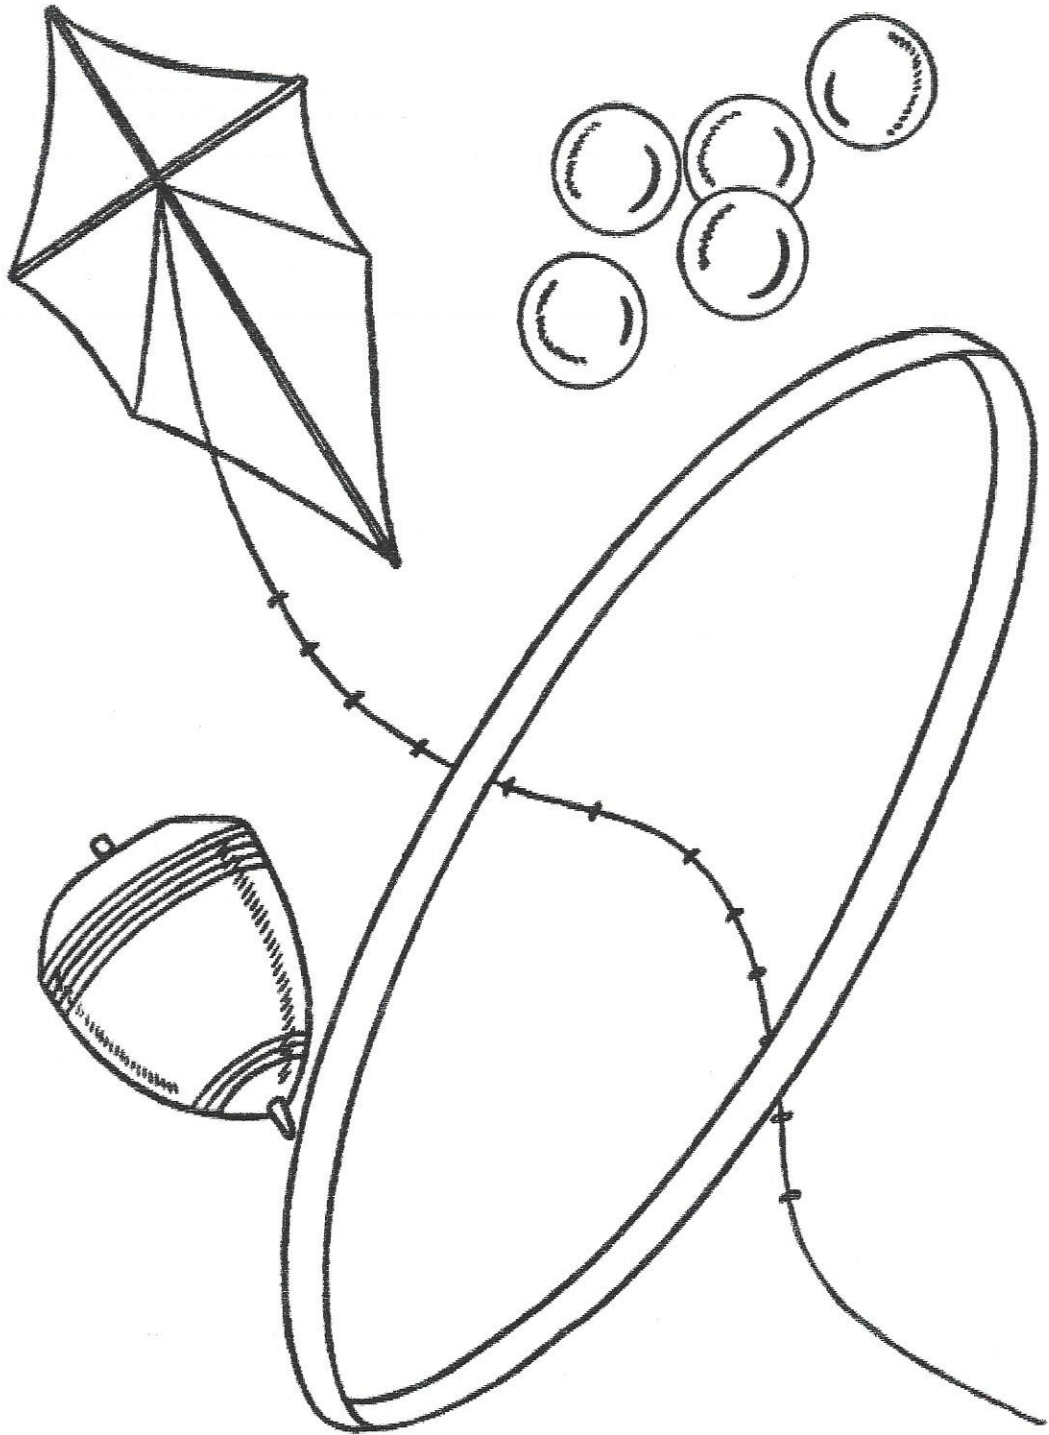

Mules are used as pack animals.

Horses can run fast and carry people.

Tops, marbles, hoops and kites were enjoyed by the children.
