The Old Spanish Trail Celebration at the Cheech Marin Center for Chicano Art

By Jim Wood, California Director and Nancy Melendez, Vice President

The Agua Mansa Chapter of the OSTA celebrated the 20th Anniversary of trail acceptance as a “National Historic Trail” on December 4th, 2022. The event, organized by OSTA Vice President Nancy Melendez, was attended by OSTA members and guests at the Cheech Marin Center for Chicano Art and Culture in Riverside, California. The center’s focus is on the presentation and study of Chicano art from across the United States.

introduction to the event. A video entitled, “Land Acknowledgment,” honoring Native inhabitants and culture was shown. Steve Lech, a prominent Riverside historian, spoke on the significance of having a national historic trail “in your own backyard.” Lech is an author and co-author of many books on related topics, including Along the Old Roads: A History of the Portion of Southern California That Became Riverside County, 1772–1893 (2004), which is considered to be
